79. At all times material to this complaint, Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, acting through its police department, the New York City Police Department, had in effect de facto policies, practices, customs and usages that were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct of the defendant officers.

81. Upon information and belief, Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, failed to effectively screen, hire, train, supervise and discipline its detectives, sergeants, officers and other employees, including the defendant officers and employees herein, with respect to their propensity to use their police power in an unduly aggressive and violent manner, and to have a propensity to use excessive force in executing their police duties, and for their failure to protect citizens from unconstitutional conduct of other detective, sergeants, officers, and employees, thereby permitting and allowing the defendant detectives, officers, sergeants and employees herein to be in a position to maliciously assault and batter the Plaintiffs, without cause or justification, in a demonstration of the excessive force in effecting the arrest of Plaintiffs, that was so clearly grossly disproportionate under the circumstances, that it amounted to an abuse of official power that shocks the conscience, and to otherwise cause them injury and violate their constitutional rights, and/ or permit these actions to take place with their knowledge and/or consent.

The effect of this was to permit detectives, sergeants, officers and employees to function at levels of significant and substantial risk to the public in general.

83. As a result of the foregoing conscious policies, practices, customs and/or usages, Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK has permitted and allowed the employment and retention of individuals as detectives, sergeants, officers and employees whose individual circumstances place the public or segments thereof at substantial risk of being the victims of unlawful and/or unreasonable behavior. Such policies, practices, customs and/or usages are a direct and proximate cause of the conduct alleged herein and otherwise a direct and proximate cause of the injuries to the Plaintiffs therein.
